Forecast for Sunday 22 Aug 2021

Weather: Rain easing overnight but staying misty with persistent low cloud. Cloud beginning to thin during the morning with some brightness by afternoon. During the afternoon there will be some sunny spells but also a few showers. A mainly dry and partly cloudy evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Initially 10% however extensive low cloud will lift and thin during the morning and by afternoon 60% with scattered lower cloud affecting some summits.

Visibility: Visibility will be quite poor for the early part of the day with extensive low cloud from 300m and above. As cloud bases lift and cloud becomes more scattered visibility will improve and only dip in any afternoon showers. By afternoon there will be scattered low cloud from 5-600m but some clearance on the tops especially for western Perthshire and around Loch Tay.
